

Blues in the Schools

The Saskatoon Blues Society is proud to partner with the Cameco corporation to present the CAMECO 2005 Blues in the Schools Program.

Music education enables all learners to explore, create, perceive, and communicate thoughts, images, and feelings through music. These experiences are unique and essential, and make a significant contribution to learners' lifelong development as educated citizens.

Who are we?

The Saskatoon Blues Society is a coalition of Blues musicians and fans dedicated to promote, foster, support and celebrate Blues music in Saskatoon and throughout Saskatchewan.

We organize an annual blues festival, create additional performance opportunities for local musicians, and provide opportunities for listeners and players to share their knowledge and experience in the diversity of the blues with each other and the people of Saskatchewan.

The Blues Society interacts and partners with a variety of blues organizations and associations locally, nationally and internationally.

Currently, membership is nearly 150

Saskatoon Blues Society Activities

- Canadian Artist Concert series – small venue concerts featuring well known as well as up and coming Blues Artists throughout the year.
- Annual Blues Festival – 4 days of music, workshops and all ages fun.
- Blues in the Schools - our outreach program that brings outstanding artists into the schools to connect with our youth. Students learn about Blues as music, history, poetry and as a voice of social commentary.
- A website that is constantly growing in popularity and information with lots of blues news, information, & links to other sites
- Our local Blues News newsletter
- Camaraderie with other Blues fans and societies across Canada.
- Jam Sessions, both private and in partnership with local licensed establishments
- Workshops – educational workshops in partnerships with local schools and businesses
